

BusinessWeek

YOUNG ENTREPRENEURS

The Best Entrepreneurs Under 25

Meet the five most innovative -- and youthful -- leaders in U.S. small business today, as selected by BusinessWeek Online readers

Once considered a negative, entrepreneurialism is now synonymous with opportunity. Following their own paths, entrepreneurs are some of the most innovative and dynamic forces fueling the economy. They often hatch the ideas and nurture the concepts that transform the business landscape. And, today, entrepreneurs are no longer just post-corporate second acts. They're often young people who are just starting out.

With a profusion of new small businesses led by increasingly younger entrepreneurs, BusinessWeek Online embarked in September on a nationwide search to uncover the "Best Entrepreneurs Under 25." We set out to find truly innovative businesses that both demonstrated clear potential for growth and established the talent of the savvy, young entrepreneurs behind them. In short, we were looking for the next generation of success stories.

First, we put out the word that we were looking for stand-up startups that were already in business -- not in the concept phase -- and we

